

OWP Ladies: Intricate details
Style 1483

With clear lines and intricate details, style 1483 sets a sophisticated tone. The layered upper eye rim gives the frame depth, while the Art Deco style temple decoration adds a touch of elegance. The design is rounded off by temple tips made from OWP Signature Acetate with an integrated logo element.

The OWP ladies' collection represents attention to detail and superb design. Whether they are feminine and vibrant or timelessly elegant – every one of our creations stands out thanks to its unique character and, as such, is the perfect statement piece for fashion-conscious women.
