

OWP Ladies: Modern facets
Style 2236

The rectangular acetate style 2236 impresses with modern facets on the upper contour – a design highlight that can also be found on the underside of the temples. The front and temple tips made from OWP Signature Acetate, in part with elegant top layer milling, create a modern, exclusive look.

The OWP ladies' collection represents attention to detail and superb design. Whether they are feminine and vibrant or timelessly elegant – every one of our creations stands out thanks to its unique character and, as such, is the perfect statement piece for fashion-conscious women.
