

OWP Ladies: Statement design
Style 2233

The hexagonal acetate frame 2233 is a design that truly makes a statement - striking bevelled facets give the frame a dynamic, modern look. The Art Deco temples, with their cool details, add an elegant retro twist. The front and the temple tips, made of OWP Signature Acetate, ensure ultimate wearing comfort and quality. A stylish, expressive look for all those who embrace individuality and style consciousness.

The OWP ladies' collection represents attention to detail and superb design. Whether they are feminine and vibrant or timelessly elegant – every one of our creations stands out thanks to its unique character and, as such, is the perfect statement piece for fashion-conscious women.
